Sincerely In Him,

We look forward to hearing from you soon!

I wanted to write and personally congratulate you on your recent baptism into Christ. You will never take a greater or more important step in life than this, because God's Word teaches us that it is in baptism, preceded by belief in Christ, repentance and confession that God takes away all sins, and brings about a new life for us in Christ. We are a person (Romans 6:3-5).

It is our intention to minister to, encourage and help you in every way possible to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord (II Peter 3:18) during your incarceration and after you are released. Thank you for completing the form for our files, so that we might better prepare to assist you in your walk with Jesus. This is especially critical after release, when so many things seem to work against an ex-offender "making it" in the free world.

Dear Kimberly,
